MRS. DAVID IS LAID TO REST TODAY

Funeral of Well Known Woman Held This Morning: Hundreds Attend Church Services.

The casket and worth in which the people of Albuquerque held Mrs. Adell David, who died Thursday morning, was indicated today, when hundreds attended the funeral services and joined in the procession from the Scotti residence on South First street, to the Immaculate Conception church, and from the church to Santa Barbara cemetery, where the body was laid to rest in the family lot. The funeral procession left the residence at 9:30 o'clock, proceeding thence to the church, where Rev. A. M. Mansfield, S. J., celebrated low pontifical mass. Following mass and the saying of prayers for the repose of the soul of the deceased, the body was taken to Santa Barbara cemetery, its last resting place. The church was crowded with friends of Mrs. David and of the Scotti family, who came to pay a last loving tribute to the memory of a noble woman. A long procession of carriages accompanied the remains to the cemetery.

The pallbearers were Thomas Ishwood, Sam D. Stevens, George H. Moore, A. J. Sullivan, John Connett, W. H. Birch.

The casket was lined with wreaths of flowers, a large number of friends taking this method in giving a final token of love and devotion.

Mrs. David is gone, but her memory will remain always.

A woman of noble character, of self-sacrificing spirit, she was all in all to the members of her immediate family and a loving friend to hundreds who will long and sincerely regret her passing.
